WHAT DO I BRING?

The object you bring does not need to be queer in subject matter, but rather should be something that is important to you!

We can help advise you on the preservation of objects such as family photo albums, letters, diaries, cookbooks, quilts, blankets, jewelry, childhood memorabilia, framed art, keepsakes, scrapbooks, & more!

BALTIMORE IN-PERSON EVENTS

- Bring an object that holds personal, sentimental, or familial significance that is in need of care.
- Share the story of your object.
- Conservation professionals will be present to answer your questions.
- Try hands-on preservation activities while meeting new LGBTQ friends!

- Document your lived experience & memories for future generations.
- Learn about yourself & your past.
- Make connections with others in your community.

WHY PRESERVE?

Throughout history, records of queer lives have been hidden & erased. We want to help you preserve your stories through the preservation of objects you care about.

WHAT IS THE QUEER STORIES PRESERVATION PROJECT?

Throughout history, records of queer lives have been hidden & erased. We want to help you preserve your stories through the preservation of objects you care about.

The Queer Stories Preservation Project is generously funded by the Winterthur/University of Delaware Program in Art Conservation Founders & Directors Grant.

In-person events happening at Tola's Room (4212 Sheldon Ave, Baltimore, MD, 21206) in January, March, & May 2026.
